HOX! Many of the job openings are posted in Finnish although Finnish language is not needed at work!

General information

Language

- Finnish language is not required in many positions
- Some employers offer training in languages such as Arabic.

Housing

- Finding a house might be challenging for the winter season
- Some employers offer reasonably-priced housing (300-600e/month) or help with finding housing
- Housing can be shared with others or separate.
- There might be a possibility to bring your family along with you to separate housing (check this with the accommodation provider)

General information

Getting around

- Some employers offer rides to and from work
- Some jobs require walking to and from work
- Limited public transport

Social life & free time

- Opportunity to surround yourself with a community of like-minded people
- The Fell Lapland area offers a variety of opportunities for active free time
 - snowboarding
 - snow mobile experiences
 - and much more!

What is needed?

Attitude

- Working hours might be long throughout the high season.
- The weather conditions in winter might be rough.

Insurance (recommended especially for those who are not covered by KELA)

- Jobs come with an insurance plan that covers the working hours
- Free-time insurance is not included.
